

Are You Looking For A FUN Opening To Your Conference?

Do You Need Someone To FACILITATE The Smooth Running Of Your Program?

Mark Collard is one of Australia's most engaging and experienced corporate Master of Ceremonies.

Without exception, clients rave about Mark's ability to make delegates feel at ease, inspire productive conversations and, most importantly, meet their conference goals.

With Mark's expert advice and natural 'up-front' abilities, he can assist you to design and deliver an EXCEPTIONAL conference experience that will meet all of your program needs.

Unique to Mark's repertoire is his ability to integrate one or more group activities to open your conference that will generate lots of non-threatening interaction, laughter and energy, as well as occasional energisers throughout the program when required.

His natural warmth and energetic approach will immediately engage with your delegates, and prepare them for the business at hand.

To make your conference an UNFORGETTABLE event, Mark will:

- Be your closest ally to help you in every way with the running of your program;
- Speak directly with each member of the logistics team (presenters, caterer, venue, media, etc) well in advance of your event to gain a common understanding of your needs, ie so there are no surprises on the day;
- Organise all of the logistics during the event from the opening speech, to the conclusion – indeed, everything you have planned;
- Connect with your delegates and help them feel comfortable; and
- Keep the event moving smoothly and on time.

As your Master of Ceremonies, Mark will help you create a conference event that will be remembered for all the right reasons – or, you don't pay!

"...I was particularly impressed with your MC work – you did a remarkable job, and knew how to work the audience..."

Katy, Public Relations, AAPT

"...I would like to sincerely thank you for the fabulous job you did as MC on our Brand Launch evening. Your professionalism was a blessing. Your ease, your presence and the way you kept the program running was the glue that held our evening together. We will definitely call on you again to give our next event your touch."

Caz, Office Manager, Evolve at Typo Station

background

Mark earned his Bachelor of Business (Accounting) degree in Melbourne in 1985 and a Master of Business Administration degree in New York, USA in 1987.

He is engaged to facilitate many corporate and educational programs including:

- Team development
- Development of adventure programming skills
- Strategic / organisational development
- Conference activity programs
- Master of Ceremonies

Mark is one of Australia's most qualified and accomplished facilitators, and one of only a few Project Adventure international trainers. He delivers 50 to 80 days of corporate and educational programs annually, principally developing team skills and self-esteem and facilitating dozens of corporate events.

Engaged as a freelance international facilitator since mid-2000, Mark delivers a wide variety of programs throughout Australia, South East Asia and the USA.

Mark brings a natural warmth and energy to everything that he delivers. His fun and vibrant approach not only makes participants feel at home, but also assists them to learn more from their experience.

clientele

Mark has facilitated extraordinary program outcomes for hundreds of clients throughout Australia, including:

Telstra	Australia Post	BHP Billiton	Hagemeyer
KW Doggett Fine Paper	Slade Pharmacy Services	Transurban / City Link	NSW Dept of Sport & Recreation
YMCA Victoria	YMCA NSW	Monash University	Victoria Police
Victoria University	Smorgan Steel	Selectronic	PowerCor
BankWest	RACV	Salvation Army	MFB
CFA	Life Saving Victoria	CanTeen	Easy Towers
Methodist Ladies College	Lee Hecht Harrison	Luther College	City of Casey

Mark Collard
4 Carroll Street
Launching Place VIC 3139
Australia

mark@markcollard.com

mobile 0413 075 123 international +614 1307 5123